

ENVIRONMENTAL POLICY

It is the policy of the Appledore Book Festival to minimise its effect on the environment. This will be done by:

- Striving to include speakers from the West Country to appear at the Festival.
- Encouraging speakers and visitors to travel by public transport to the Festival.
- Encouraging local businesses to participate in and supply goods or services to the Festival.
- Sharing resources with other local groups.
- Printing publicity and other material on recycled paper where possible.
- Generally reusing and recycling the materials used in the running of the Festival.
- Limiting the use of single-use plastics.
- Using electric vehicles where possible.
- Sharing transport to and from the festival.
